Who are we?

Brighter Futures Limited is a fidéicomis, constituted under Loi (1862) sur les teneures en fidéicomis et l'incorporation d'associations, charity based in Jersey, Channel Islands, which supports parents, carers, children and young people. We are registered with the Association of Jersey Charities (registration number AJC 320) and the Jersey Charities Commissioner (registration number 204). We provide a number of free programmes, 1:1 keyworker support and services to help support the parents and carers we meet. Parents and carers come to us for a variety of reasons and from across the social system.

Brighter Futures Limited is the controller and responsible for your personal data (collectively referred to as "we", "us" or "our" in this privacy policy).

How do we collect information from you?

We use different methods to collect data from and about you including through:

Direct interactions. You may give us your Identity, Contact and Financial Data by filling in forms or by corresponding with us by post, phone, email or otherwise. This includes personal data you provide when you:

- apply for our products or services by email, post or telephone.
- subscribe to our service or publications.
- request marketing to be sent to you.
- Donate to us.
- enter a competition, promotion or survey.
- give us some feedback.

Automated technologies or interactions. As you interact with our website, we may automatically collect Technical Data about your equipment, browsing actions and patterns. We collect this personal data by using cookies, server logs and other similar technologies. We may also receive Technical Data about you if you visit other websites employing our cookies. Please see our cookie policy below for further details.

Third parties or publicly available sources. We may receive personal data about you from various third parties as set out below:

Technical Data from the following parties:

- (a) analytics providers such as Google based inside or outside the EU; and
- (b) search information providers based inside or outside the EU.

- Contact, Financial and Transaction Data from providers of technical, payment and delivery services based inside or outside the EU.
- Other service providers and our associated agencies and referrers based in Jersey.

What type of information is collected from you?

If you are accessing services, we require information from you that includes your personal contact details, the nature of your query and information that you choose to disclose which is relevant to us providing you with access to our services and the fulfilment of our duties to you. If you are a client, this may include special categories of personal data (as detailed below).

As a donor, volunteer or if you sign up to our newsletter, the personal information we collect will include your name, address, email address, telephone number, your link to the charity (for example, donor/friend/event attendee) as well as information regarding your donation.

Identity Data includes first name, maiden name, last name, username or similar identifier, marital status, title, date of birth and gender.

Contact Data includes billing address, delivery address, email address and telephone numbers.

Financial Data includes bank account and payment card details. We do not take donations directly online; these are handled through a secure third-party site such as www.justgiving.com who manages their own information storage. Please refer to their privacy policy for more information.

Transaction Data includes details about payments to and from you and other details of products and services you donated to.

Technical Data includes internet protocol (IP) address, your login data, browser type and version, time zone setting and location, browser plug-in types and versions, operating system and platform and other technology on the devices you use to access this website.

Profile Data includes your username and password, purchases or orders made by you, your interests, preferences, feedback and survey responses.

Who has access to your information?

If you are accessing Brighter Futures services or enquiring about accessing services, your information is disclosed only to those third parties who require your details to fulfil our requirements to you with your prior consent unless there are safeguarding concerns for a child's safety.

Brighter Futures acts as the information controller and works with a processor (database management software) to securely store and manage your information.

In the case of donors, volunteers and clients we may pass your information to our third-party service providers, agents subcontractors and other associated organisations for the purposes of completing tasks and providing services to you on our behalf (for example to process donations and send you mailings or provide you with support services). However, when we use third party service providers, we disclose only the personal information that is necessary to deliver the service and we have a contract in place that requires them to keep your information secure and not to use it for their own direct marketing purposes.

Please be reassured that we will not release your information to third parties, beyond the Brighter Futures partners, for their own direct marketing purposes, unless you have requested us to do so, or we are required to do so by law. For example: a court order or for the purposes of prevention of fraud or other crime.

We require all third parties to respect the security of your personal data and to treat it in accordance with the law. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes and only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

Your choices

You have a choice about whether or not you wish to receive information from us. If you do not want to receive direct marketing communications from us about the vital work we do within the community, then you can select your choices by notifying us when we request your consent by email or post.

We will not contact you for marketing purposes by email, phone or text message unless you have given your prior consent. We will not contact you for marketing purposes by post if you have indicated that you do not wish to be contacted. You can change your marketing preferences at any time by contacting us by email: info@brighterfutures.org.ie or phone: 01534 449152

The right to be forgotten

Under the Data Protection (Jersey) Law 2018 all individuals have the right to have their personal data erased. Individuals can make a request for erasure verbally or in writing and we will respond to this request within one month. The right is not absolute, and our legal obligations supersede above the right to be forgotten.

How you can access and update your information

It is important that the personal data we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your personal data changes during your relationship with us. If any of the information we hold is inaccurate or out of date, please email us at: info@brighterfutures.org.je or by writing to Brighter Futures, The Bridge, Le Geyt, St Saviour, JE2 7NT. Alternatively, you can telephone 01534 449152.

You have the right to ask for a copy of the information Brighter Futures holds about you, to request this information please email info@brighterfutures.org.je. You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request is clearly unfounded, repetitive or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with your request in these circumstances.

Security precautions and breach policy

When you give us personal information, we take steps to ensure that it's treated securely. We do not hold any payment details on record and information falling within special categories of personal data is stored on a secure database in accordance with best practice security methods and is never transferred without encryption in place.

In the event of personal data breaches, we will report directly to Information Commissioner of Jersey within 72 hours of becoming aware of the breach, where feasible. In the case of a high-risk breach which affects our clients and donors, we will inform those individuals without undue delay.

Profiling

We may analyse your personal information to create a profile of your interests and preferences so that we can contact you with information relevant to you from the information you have provided to us where we have received your prior consent in accordance with this privacy policy. We may make use of additional information about you when it is available from external sources listed in this policy to help us do this effectively.

Use of 'cookies'

Cookies are files which can be stored on your computer when you visit a website. These files contain information about the webpages you look at so that the next time you visit the site it can be customised to meet your needs. No personal information is collected.

It is possible to switch off cookies by setting your browser preferences. Turning cookies off may result in a loss of functionality when using our website.

Links to other websites

Our website may contain links to other websites run by other organisations. This privacy policy applies only to our website, so we encourage you to read the privacy statements on the other websites you visit. We cannot be responsible for the privacy policies and practices of other sites even if you access them using links from our website.

In addition, if you linked to our website from a third-party site, we cannot be responsible for the privacy policies and practices of the owners and operators of that third party site and recommend that you check the policy of that third party site.

16 or Under

We aim to protect the privacy of children aged 16 or under. If you are aged 16 or under, we must obtain your parent/guardian's permission before processing your personal information.

Transferring your information outside of Europe

As part of the services offered to you through this website, the information which you provide to us may be transferred to countries outside Jersey and the European Union ("EU"). By way of example, this may happen if any of our servers are from time to time located in a country outside of the EU. These countries may not have similar data protection laws to the UK. By submitting your personal data, you're agreeing to this transfer, storing or processing. If we transfer your information outside of the EU in this way, we will take steps to ensure that appropriate security measures are taken with the aim of ensuring that your privacy rights continue to be protected as outlined below:

- Where we use certain service providers in third countries, we may use specific contracts approved by the European Commission which give personal data the same protection it has in Europe. For further details, see European Commission: Model contracts for the transfer of personal data to third countries. https://ec.europa.eu/info/law/law-topic/data-protection/data-transfers-outside-eu/model-contracts-transfer-personal-data-third-countries_en

If you use our services while you are outside Jersey or the EU, your information may be transferred outside Jersey or the EU in order to provide you with those services.

Review of this policy

We keep this policy under regular review and may, at any time, revise this privacy statement. Where there are material changes to this privacy policy, we will use reasonable endeavours to update you of these.

This policy was last updated in SEPTEMBER 2023.
