

Brighter Futures

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Tara Gretton

Name and role:

Tara Gretton, Solution-Focused Practitioner and Founder of Solution Revolution

Professional background:

Tara Gretton is a Social Work England-registered social worker, accredited solution-focused practitioner, coach, trainer, and consultant with extensive experience supporting children, young people, and families. She founded Solution Revolution and works internationally with organisations to embed strengths-based, relational practice across education, social care, and community settings, training practitioners and leaders to prioritise wellbeing and sustainable change.

Speakers Perspective on why early intervention matters:

Early intervention matters because empowering families and communities with strength-based support at the earliest stage builds resilience, reduces risk before problems escalate, and improves long-term wellbeing for individuals and systems alike.

Together, we are creating Brighter Futures for families in Jersey.
